

BERGEVIN LANE

VINEYARDS

Current Acclaim!

92 2007 “Barrel Select” Syrah Columbia Valley Wine Spectator Feb 2011

“Ripe and round, delivering a plush mouthful of floral-accented plum and blackberry fruit that lingers on the rich, expressive finish.”

92 2008 “The Princess” Syrah Walla Walla Valley Wine Spectator Feb 2011

“Broad and generous, not heavy but juicy and supple, brimming with ripe plum, blackberry and pomegranate flavors that linger easily on the finish.”

91 2007 Intuition Reserve Columbia Valley Wine Spectator Feb 2011

“Sturdy, focused and appealing for its mineral-accented blackberry and currant flavors and earthy herbal overtones, meshing seamlessly as the finish lingers.”

91 2008 “Oui Deux” Wahluke Slope Wine Advocate Oct 2011

“It delivers a complex perfume of smoke, games, espresso, licorice, blueberry, and blackberry. Full-bodied...layers of succulent fruit, peppery spice notes, excellent balance, and a fruit-filled finish.”

91 2008 Cabernet Sauvignon Columbia Valley Wine Spectator Oct 2011

Spicy black fruits, earthy minerals, herbs and spices form the bouquet of this ripe, nicely proportioned Cabernet which is well priced for what it delivers.

91 2007 She-Devil Syrah Columbia Valley Wine Advocate Sept 2011

Notes of game, pepper, underbrush, and blueberry set the stage for a spicy, succulent, friendly wine that has enough structure and balance to drink well for another 4-5 years. It is an excellent value.

90 2009 Viognier Columbia Valley Wine Advocate Sept 2011

Inviting aromas of tropical and orchard fruits lead to a wine with excellent depth, plenty of spice, and impeccable balance. Drink this excellent value over the next 2-3 years.

88 2008 Calico Red Columbia Valley Wine Advocate Sept 2011

It offers up notes of cedar, spice box, violets, herbs, and assorted black fruits followed by a forward, savory, friendly red that finishes with no hard edges.

87 2009 Calico White Columbia Valley Wine Advocate Oct 2010

“It exhibits a fragrant bouquet of spring flowers, citrus, melon, and baking spices. Well-balanced, vibrant, and savory on the palate.”

“Annette Bergevin and Amber Lane continue to turn out excellent wines at very fair prices from their Walla Walla-based winery. The current releases, particularly the Syrah cuvees, appear to be their best wines to date. The Calico wines are always terrific values and the new releases are no exception. .” Dr. Jay Miller 2011